Theatre Arts

A summer drama program for children ages 8-13

July 14-19, 2008
at the Silverton Gallery

A week of exciting drama skills and great fun!

valhallafinearts.org/vista

A Week-long program for ages 8-13
based on the theme

“Sleuths and Spies”

July 14-19, 2008

Let your imagination and creativity flow with this year’s exciting theme. Throughout this fun-filled week you’ll learn staging techniques, scriptwriting and costuming from professional theatre instructors. Dramatic work in movement, voice and improvisation will increase your self-confidence and stage skills. Explore and collaborate with other performers to create a unique final theatre piece.

Why not come for a family holiday? Enjoy Slocan Lakes beaches and walking trails, bicycle the Galena Trail, explore our cultural and mining heritage and visit our many museums and working artist galleries. For our wide range of accommodation options, please visit www.slocanlake.com - VSSM Housing Exchange

our fabulous staff of theatre professionals at the top of their game! VISTA is delighted to welcome our 2008 artistic staff.

Jim Dugan, Artistic Director

Jim is an accomplished actor. He received his PhD at University of Toronto and taught at the University of Ottawa. He is currently Head of the Drama Department at University of Calgary.

Mat Maitlandt

Actor, Director, Clown, Improviser and Artistic Director of Calgary Young People’s Theatre, Mat is currently completing a BFA at University of Calgary. He can be found in Alberta and across BC performing as himself or as his clown character ‘Toro.’ He loves teaching children and has been working professionally in children’s theatre for 5 years. He is thrilled to return to the beautiful Slocan Valley for a third summer and work with all of the talented and creative kids at VISTA.

Waneta Storms

Waneta was raised in Hills, BC and was bit by the bug for acting when local Kootenay artists received a grant to create a play with Lucerne Secondary School students. Since then, she studied theatre and acting at Simon Fraser University, and the National Theatre School of Canada. She began her professional career in Toronto, where she has performed on nearly every stage, large and small. It has always been Waneta’s dream to return to the Kootenays one day to share her experience and love of the arts with the local community.
