About the Society ...

Valhalla Fine Arts programs are a presentation of the Valhalla Summer School of Fine Arts Society, a non-profit society dedicated to developing high quality arts programs for young people. All our programs are led by instructors who are outstanding artists and experienced teachers of children and youth.

Situated in the north Slocan Valley, Valhalla Fine Arts is entering its 11th year of successful arts camps, including

- ! Valhalla Summer School of Music
- ! Valhalla Intensive Performers Program
- ! Suzuki Valhalla Institute
- ! Valhalla Film School

and ...

Valhalla School of Theatre Arts ViSTA !

Two camps - Silverton & Nakusp

A Week-long program
for ages 8-13
based on the theme
"Worlds of Magic"
July 13-18, 2009 (Silverton) or
July 20-25, 2009 (Nakusp)

All sorts of mysterious and magical characters live in these worlds -- queens, kings, sorcerers, sprites, witches and warlocks, werewolves, vampires, dragons. The instructors are looking forward to having students choose and develop characters, creating plays full of magic spells and tricks. Students will work on movement, voice, improvisation and theatre games in the process of developing a final performance to share with families and friends Saturday evening at 7:00 pm.

Why not come for a family holiday? Enjoy Sloca Lake's beaches and walking trails, bicycle the Galena Trail, explore our cultural and mining heritage and visit our many museums and working artist galleries. For our wide range of accommodation options, please check our website for links to the Valhalla Housing Exchange

our fabulous staff of theatre professionals at the top of their game!
ViSTA is delighted to welcome our 2009 artistic staff.

Jim Dugan, Artistic Director

Jim is a teacher and stage and film actor. He received his PhD at University of Toronto and currently teaches at the University of Calgary.

Mat Maitlandt

Actor, director, clown, improviser and Artistic Director of Calgary Young People's Theatre, Mat recently completed a BFA at University of Calgary. He is a founding member of Kids Play Klassics and contributor to the Calgary Improv Festival and International Children's Festival. He can be found in Alberta and across BC performing as himself or as his clown character "Toro." He loves teaching children and has been working professionally in children's theatre for 5 years. He is thrilled to return to the beautiful Sloca Valley for a fourth summer and work with all the talented and creative kids at ViSTA.

Julie Mortensen

Julie is an actor, clown, drama instructor and theatre producer. She recently earned her BFA and BCOMM from the University of Calgary. Julie is the co-founder and Associate Artistic Producer of Downstage, a Calgary-based theatre company that explores socially and politically charged themes. Julie also works for Quest theatre where she teaches children drama skills and directs them in performances at their school. On the weekends she is quite the clown, literally, and can be seen painting faces and twisting balloons at children's events around the city as "Petals."
